

Christmas Shopping

It was two weeks to Christmas. Joshua and his mother went to a big department store to shop for Christmas presents.

First, they went to the toys department to get a present for Joshua's cousin. She liked dolls. They bought her a doll in a beautiful pink dress. Next, they went to the men's department to buy a present for Joshua's father. Joshua wanted to buy him a tie but when his mother found a nice shirt, they decided to buy that instead. Finally, they went to the household department to buy a frying pan for Joshua's aunt. Before going home, Joshua's mother let him buy his favourite superhero figurine.

Joshua was tired at the end of the day but he was glad that they bought all the presents. He could not wait for Christmas to arrive.
