

CONJUNCTIONS

Fill in each blank with a suitable conjunction. Sometimes, more than one conjunction can be used.

Example: I like to talk to you, _____ but _____ not today.

- _____ he refused to join, I decided to go myself.
- The speaker is so small _____ you can hardly see him from the back of the room.
- Both the novel _____ the show are popular.
- _____ he is stout, he is quite weak.
- This word may be used _____ as a noun _____ as a verb.
- Tom was angry, _____ he listened to me patiently.
- He took the food eagerly _____ he had eaten nothing since dawn.
- When you graduate, you can _____ get a job _____ go for further studies.
- A vegetarian can eat _____ meat _____ fish.
- Someone knocked on the door _____ she was eating.

Answers:

1. As / Since
2. that
3. and
4. Though / Although
5. both...and / not only...but also / either...or
6. but
7. because / as / for
8. either...or
9. neither...nor
10. while