

HOMOPHONES

Homophones are words that sound the same but are spelt differently. These words have different meanings.

The underlined words are wrong. Write the correct words in the boxes provided.

- In the play, there was a dual between the characters.
- At the end of the play, the fairy will sore into the air.
- The enemies will spa with each other.
- The main character in the play is a mail.
- The young girl carried an earn and walked slowly across the stage.
- The city was a maize of buildings so the children lost their way.
- The characters wore black dresses to show that they were in morning.
- The audience jumped in fright when the wooden door on the stage opened with a creek.

Answers

7. mourning
8. creek

4. male
5. urn
6. maze

1. duel
2. soar
3. spar