

Model Composition 2 – Chinese New Year

“Clash! Clash!” Sandra rushed to her window to see the lion dance troupe. They were so colourful and magnificent.

It was the first day of the Chinese New Year and Sandra could not wait to visit her relatives. When the lion dance ended, Sandra changed into her new clothes and put on her new shoes. Then she wished her parents ‘Happy New Year’. Sandra and her parents went to her aunt’s house. There were already many relatives there. Sandra received red packets from all the elders. She was delighted. She ate snacks and drank fruit juice while watching a variety show on television. Later, she played card games with her cousins.

Sandra visited three other relatives that day. By the time she returned home, it was late at night. As she prepared for bed, she reminded herself to donate part of the money from the red packets to charity.
