

Reading 2 — A Hot Day

It was a very hot day. The sun was shining very brightly. I decided to go to the beach. I dressed comfortably in my favourite singlet, shorts and trainers.

When I arrived at the beach, I rented a bicycle immediately. I cycled slowly from one end of the beach to the other. It was very relaxing. After cycling, I went over to the ice cream kiosk to buy an ice cream cone. The ice cream was delicious. I sat on the sand, enjoying the breeze and the cold ice cream. It was a great treat for a hot day. Later that day, I splashed about in the sea. The water was cool and refreshing. I decided to leave when it was time for lunch.

Lunch was ready when I arrived home. I told my mother that I had a great time at the beach. It was a fun way to spend a hot morning.
