

SUITABLE PRONOUNS

In each of the sentences, choose the correct pronoun in the brackets.

1. As Paul likes mathematics and statistics, he does well in (it, them, him). _____
2. If you would like the Browns to come, please tell (her, him, them). _____
3. The leaders will meet here to discuss (its, their, her) plans for the next two years. _____
4. Nobody wanted to do (their, his, its) work. _____
5. Anyone who wants to participate must produce (their, his, its) identity card. _____
6. Everyone in the girls' choir envied (his, its, their) choir leader. _____
7. The boys said (he, she, they) would be responsible for collecting old newspapers in (his, her, their) neighbourhood. _____
8. We know full well that everybody has (his, our, its) own problems. _____
9. Anybody may kill (himself, themselves, myself) with drugs if (he, I, they) refuses to listen to good advice. _____
10. Nobody said (it, he, they) would bring (his, its, their) radio to the picnic. _____
11. Those attending the party said that (he, they, she) had enjoyed (himself, herself, themselves). _____
12. Someone forgot to complete (his, its, their) form. _____

Answers:
1. them
2. them
3. their
4. his
5. his
6. herself, he

7. they
8. their
9. he, his
10. they

11. they, their
12. themselves
13. their

14. his
15. his
16. his