

REVIEW

Imperative verb forms are written in the base form. We use imperative verb forms when we want to tell someone to do something or to give instructions.

Review these.

- Boil some water.
- Put a teaspoon of instant coffee powder into a cup.
- Pour some boiling water into the cup.
- Add some sugar to the coffee.
- Stir the coffee.
- Serve the coffee with some biscuits.
- Come here.
- Stand up.
- Study hard.
- Sit down.
- Go this way.
- Open the door for me.
- Help me with this box, please.
- Close the door behind you.
- Check the windows before you leave.
- Throw the rubbish into the bin.
- Keep your school shoes clean.