

REVIEW

Gerunds are present participles used like nouns and they always end in 'ing'.

A gerund can be the subject of a sentence.

- Reading increases our knowledge.
- Window-shopping is one of my favourite pastimes.
- Travelling has become cheaper and more comfortable.

A gerund can be the object of a sentence.

- I enjoy jogging in the park.
- Mr Jacob loves diving and fishing.
- I am fond of surfing the internet.