

UNIT 19

DEMONSTRATIVE PRONOUNS

REVIEW

Demonstrative pronouns refer to particular people or things.

'This' and 'that' are called demonstrative pronouns.

'This' is used to point out a person or thing that is near the speaker. The plural form of 'this' is 'these'.

'That' is used to point out a person or thing that is far from the speaker. The plural form of 'that' is 'those'.

Review these.

- This is my ball.

- This is Frank, my brother.

- These are my brother's books.

- These are delicious burgers.

- That is a beautiful kite.

- That is my school bus.

- Those are my neighbour's horses.

- Those are big mountains.

