

REVIEW

Modal verbs are followed by a verb in the infinitive form.

They express ability or inability.

Review these.

- He cannot fly like a bird.
- A man can walk.
- I can speak fluent English.
- He cannot swim.

They express possibility. They are also used to ask for permission.

Review these.

- Eric may buy a bicycle soon.
- May I go home?

They express what is the right or the best thing to do.

Review these.

- They should read silently.
- I ought to help my mother.
- We must sweep the floor.
- He may receive a present from his friend this week.
- We should postpone the match as it is raining heavily.
- All of us ought to take care of our parents when they are old.
- You must serve your country.