

UNIT 20

FUTURE TENSE: THE 'GOING TO' FORM

REVIEW

We use the 'going to' form to show that something is almost certain to happen.

Review these.

- The sky is dark. It is going to rain.
- The aeroplane is approaching the airport. It is going to land.
- Christmas is coming. I am going to send John an e-card.
- That building is too old. It is going to collapse.
- Today is Ann's birthday. Her mother is going to give her a surprise.
- We are tired. We are going to take a rest.
- Peter wants to borrow my pen. I am going to lend it to him.
