

REVIEW

A preposition is a word that is used before a noun or pronoun to show the word's connection with another word.

Review these.

- This house is made of wood.
- Joe went fishing with me.
- I bought a loaf of bread.
- He hit the snake with a stick.
- My cousin is fond of me.

Prepositions of position show where someone or something is.

Review these.

- The kitten is under the table.
- The girl is sitting beside the boy.
- The kite is above us.

Prepositions of direction show the movement of a person, animal or thing.

Review these.

- Roy is jumping into the pool.
- The monkey is climbing up the tree.
- Let's walk down the stairs.

Prepositions of time show when something is taking place.

Review these.

- Dinner is at seven o'clock.
- My birthday falls on May 2.
- My mother's birthday is in June.