

REVIEW

Adjectival phrases are groups of words which do the work of adjectives. They describe nouns. They often begin with prepositions.

Review these.

- The man in the car is Mr Lee.
- The girl with long hair is Nancy.
- The man in the office is our principal.
- The girl with the yellow bag is my sister.
- The people under the tree are construction workers.
- The boy in the photograph is my brother.
- The children in the jungle have lost their way.
- The bag on the table belongs to my sister.