

Using 'direct and indirect speech'

Rewrite the following sentences to indirect speech.

1. "Where did you go yesterday?" my father asked me.

2. "Don't be frightened," the old man told the boys.

3. "Yes, I broke the vase yesterday," admits Judy.

4. "We go to school by ourselves," said the two brothers.

5. He says, "This storybook is very interesting."

1. My father asked me where I had gone the day before.
2. The old man told the boys not to be frightened.
3. Judy admits that she broke the vase the day before.
4. The two brothers said that they went to school by themselves.
5. He says that that storybook is very interesting.

Answers